APPLICANT'S CERTIFICATION:

I understand that this application is not an offer of housing. I understand that a Housing Authority will make no more than one offer of an appropriate public housing unit. If I do not accept that offer, my application will be removed from the waiting list; and, if I reapply, my application will not receive any priority or preference that was granted on the prior application for a three (3) year period.

Based on this application, I understand I should not make plans to move or end my present tenancy until I have received a written Unit Offer from a Housing Authority. I understand that it is my responsibility to inform the Housing Authority in writing of any change of addresses, income, or household composition. I authorize the Housing Authority to make inquiries to verify the information I have provided in this application. I certify that the information I have given in this application is true and correct. I understand that any false statement or misrepresentation may result in the denial of my application. I understand that the Housing Authority will request Criminal Offender Record Information from the Criminal History Systems Board and perform credit checks and internet searches for all adult members of the household.

FAIR INFORMATION PRACTICES ACT STATEMENT OF RIGHTS

The Framingham Housing Authority collects information about applicants and tenants for its housing programs as required by law in order to determine eligibility, amount of rent, and correct apartment size. The information collected is used to manage the housing programs, to protect the public's financial interest and to verify the accuracy of information submitted. When permitted by law, it may be released to government agencies, other housing authorities, and to civil or criminal investigators or prosecutors. Otherwise, the information will be kept confidential and used only by housing authority staff in the course of their duties.

The Fair Information Practices Act established requirements governing housing authorities' use and disclosure of the information it collects. Applicants and tenants may give or withhold their permission when requested by a housing authority to provide information, however, failure to permit the housing authority to obtain the required information may result in delay, ineligibility for programs, or termination of tenancy or housing subsidy. The provision of false or incomplete information is a criminal offense punishable by fines and/or imprisonment.

As an applicant or tenant, you have the following rights in regard to the information collected about you:

1. No information may be used for any purpose other than those described above without your consent.
2. No information may be disclosed to any person other than those described above without your consent.
3. You or your authorized representative have a right to inspect and copy any information collected about you.
4. You may ask questions and receive answers from the housing authority about how it will collect and use your information.
5. You may object to the collection, maintenance, dissemination, use, accuracy, completeness or type of information the housing authority holds about you. If you object, it will investigate your objection, and either correct the problem or make your objection part of the file. If you are dissatisfied, you may file a grievance under the housing authority's grievance procedure.

I have read and understood this Fair Information Practices Act Statement of Rights and have received a copy for future reference.

Notice to All Applicants and Residents: Reasonable Accommodations and Modifications are available for Applicants and Residents with Mental and/or Physical Disabilities

Local Housing Authority (LHA) does not discriminate against applicants or residents on the basis of mental (including psychiatric) or physical disabilities. In addition, the LHA has an obligation to provide "reasonable accommodations" and "reasonable modifications" on account of a disability if an applicant or resident or a household member is limited by the disability and for this reason needs such an accommodation or modification. A reasonable accommodation is a change that the LHA can make to its rules, policies, practices, or services, and a reasonable modification is a change an LHA can make to its facilities (including physical alterations to the housing unit or public or common use areas) that will assist an otherwise eligible person with a disability to have equal opportunity to use and enjoy the housing or common or public use areas or to participate fully in the LHA's programs, activities, or services. Such changes may not be reasonable if they are not financially and programmatically feasible for the housing authority.

An applicant or resident household which has a member with a mental and/or physical disability must still be able to meet essential obligations of tenancy (for example, the household must be able to pay rent, to care for the apartment, to report required information to The LHA, and to avoid disturbing neighbors), but an accommodation or modification may be the basis by which the household is able to meet those obligations of tenancy.

The LHA has an Accommodation Coordinator. If you need an accommodation or modification because of a disability, please complete the attached form and return it to the LHA. Upon reasonable request by the LHA, you must also submit documentation verifying the existence of a disability and the disability-related need for the accommodation or modification. Within thirty (30) calendar days of receipt of your request and documentation, the Accommodation Coordinator will contact you to discuss what the LHA can reasonably do to provide you an accommodation or modification on account of your disability.

If you or a member of your household has a mental and/or physical disability, and as a result needs an accommodation or modification, you, the household member, or authorized representative, may request it at any time. However, you are not obliged to make such a request, and if you prefer not to do so that is your right.
